C2 In the space below, describe all ongoing and new charitable programs the charity carried on this fiscal period to further its purpose(s) (as defined in its governing documents). "Programs" includes all of the charitable activities that the charity carries out on its own through employees or volunteers as well as through qualified donees and intermediaries. The charity may also use this space to describe the contributions of its volunteers in carrying out its activities, for example, number of volunteers and/or hours. Do not include the names of employees or volunteers. Grant-making charities should describe the types of organizations they support. Do not describe fundraising activities in this space.Do not attach additional sheets of paper or annual reports.

Ongoing programs:

The purposes of Artists for Peace and Justice Canada (the "organization") are:

- To relieve poverty in Haiti by advancing education and providing equipment, teacher salaries, and physical improvements to local institutions serving those in need.
- To advance education by providing financial assistance to students in Haiti who are in need.
- To promote public health in Haiti by providing medical equipment to be used in treating the general public.
- To do all such other things as are incidental and ancillary to the attainment of the foregoing objects.
- To receive and maintain a fund or funds and to apply all or part of the principal and income therefrom, from time to time, to qualified donees as defined in subsection 149.1(1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

New programs:

BN/registration number 822962205RR0001Fiscal period end 2015-12-31Political activities*Schedule 7

A registered charity may pursue political activities only if the activities are non-partisan, related to its charitable purposes, and limited in extent. A political activity is any activity that explicitly communicates to the public that a law, policy or decision of any level of government inside or outside Canada should be retained, opposed, or changed.

- 1 Describe the charity's political activities, including gifts to qualified donees intended for political activities, and explain how these relate to its charitable purposes.

- 2 Identify the way the charity participated in or carried out political activities during the fiscal period.

Changes affecting your annual information return

Answer the question below, and attach it to the charity's Form T3010, Registered Charity Information Return.

Limited partnership holdings

The 2015 Federal Budget proposed that a registered charity may invest in limited partnerships without being considered to be carrying on a business solely because of that holding, as long as it meets all of the following conditions:

- The charity must be a limited partner of the partnership;
- The charity – together with all non-arm's length entities – holds 20% or less of the fair market value of all interests in the partnership; and
- The charity deals at arm's length with each general partner of the partnership.

A registered charity with partnership holdings other than what is described above would be considered to be carrying on the business of the partnership. Depending on the nature of the partnership's activities and the arrangement, this could result in the registered charity not meeting the requirements for registration under the Income Tax Act.

New reporting requirement

All registered charities must now annually report their partnership holdings. To fulfil the reporting requirement for this year, charities must answer the question below and attach it to the charity's Form T3010, Registered Charity Information Return. Next year, this question will be included on Form T3010.

Response instructions

If the charity has direct partnership holdings either as a limited partner or a general partner, tick Yes.

If the charity does not have partnership holdings, or if all such holdings are indirect, tick No.

The following are examples of when a charity does not have to report holdings either as a limited partner or a general partner:

- It has holdings in mutual fund trusts, mutual fund corporations, or unit trusts which in turn have partnership holdings;
- It has entered into formal or informal arrangements with other parties which do not result in partnership holdings (for example, joint venture, or agency agreement).

New reporting question

Did the charity have direct partnership holdings at any time during the fiscal period?..... ☐ Yes ☒ No
